THE DIPLOMA IN PSYCHOLOGICAL MEDICINE

A Certificate in Psychological Medicine was founded at the Annual Meeting held on 4 August, 1885, and the first examination was held in 1886. This was superseded in 1948 by a Diploma in Psychological Medicine. After negotiations with the Royal Colleges of Physicians and Surgeons, it was decided to discontinue the Diploma and the last final examination was held in November 1954. During the six years of its existence 29 candidates obtained the Diploma.

THE NURSING CERTIFICATE

The Certificate of Proficiency in Mental Nursing was founded at the Annual Meeting held on 24 July, 1890, and until 1921 was the only recognized qualification in Mental Nursing. A separate Certificate in Mental Deficiency Nursing was instituted in 1919. After negotiations with the General Nursing Councils examinations for these Certificates were discontinued, the last being held in 1951.

For illustrations of the Insignia of the Nursing Certificate see previous issues of the Year Book.

Honorary Certificate in Mental Nursing

1928. H.R.H. THE PRINCESS ROYAL.

The Campbell Clark Medal and Prize

The Prize was instituted in 1933 in memory of Dr. Campbell Clark, who was largely instrumental in promoting the training of mental nurses and the foundation of the Association's Nursing Certificate. It was awarded in May and November of each year to the candidate who obtained the highest number of marks at the Final Examination for this Certificate.

The Eleanor Finegan Prize for Mental Nursing

This Prize was instituted by Dr. Arthur Finegan as a memorial to his wife, and was originally awarded to the nurse (whether male or female) attached to the Mullingar (West Meath) District Asylum, who obtained the highest marks in the Association's Annual Examination for Mental Nursing. Changes of circumstance later made operative a clause in the Trust Deed whereby the Prize, amounting to £5 per annum, was paid to the Association to be awarded to the mental nurse with the highest efficiency in the Association's Examination for Mental Nursing wheresoever held.
